

Financial Aid

Santa Ana Beauty College accredited by National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts and Sciences (NACCAS), and approved by the Department of Education for participation in the Title IV Financial Aid Programs.

Financial aid is a mechanism that reduces out-of-pocket costs that the student and/or parents must pay to obtain a specific postsecondary education. Presented differently, financial aid is the money that made available to help students meet the cost of college attendance. Financial aid includes grants and loans. The grants do not have to be repaid. Financial aid is awarded to students who have "need". Need is the difference between the amount of the money that the family will be expected to contribute to meet student costs and the cost of education at this school.

Santa Ana Beauty College offers the Federal Financial Aid to those students who qualify. The Eligibility depends upon each student's individual need and status. Currently, Santa Ana Beauty College participate the Federal Pell Grant and the Federal Pell Grant are awarded to students:
